WOMAN'S BOARD OF MISSIONS OF THE INTERIOR

PREFACE.

In offering this little volume of Hymns to our Juniors and Leaders of Mission Bands, the compilers would earnestly call the attention of those who use it, to one or two practical suggestions.

Our object has been to gather helpful, devotional and more positively Missionary Hymns set to appropriate and choice music.

Some of the tunes are old and well known, many are quite simple and can be readily sung, while others may not, at first, commend themselves, because they seem difficult, but these will grow in favor and interest as they become familiar. Such songs should never be attempted in open meeting without previous practice.

Indeed the song service of a meeting is worthy of the same preparation which is given to other parts of it, and when we learn that the singing cannot go of itself, our meetings will almost never fail in interest. We would suggest that those most proficient in music should come together and practice in advance. A nucleus thus formed of those able to render intelligently both words and music, will make it easy for others to follow.

We extend our hearty thanks to all the friends of the Woman's Board of Missions of the Interior, whose words of encouragement have cheered our work, and especially to those whose gifts of hymns and music have enabled us to publish the book without laying upon the Board any burden of expense.

That it may become a helpful instrument in the deepening and extension of missionary interest, and so hasten the coming of the kingdom of our Lord is the earnest hope of

The Committee.

Tune "MISSIONARY CHANT.

- 1 Soon may the last glad song arise
 Through all the millions of the skies,
 That song of triumph which records
 That all the earth is now the Lord's.
- 2 Let thrones and powers and kingdoms be
 Obedient, mighty God to thee ;
 And over land and sea and main,
 Wave Thou the sceptre of Thy reign.
- 3 O let the glorious anthem swell,
 Let host to host the triumph tell,
 That not one rebel heart remains
 But over all the Savior reigns.

BUILDER'S HYMN.

Dedicated to the "Engineer of the Bridge."

ELLA G. IVES.

- 1 In the freshness of the morning, in the glory of our youth,
With our hearts alert for service and our souls on fire for truth,
We are coming, we are coming, with this song in every mouth,
God's kingdom marches on.

CHO. Glory, glory, hallelujah, glory, glory, hallelujah,
Glory, glory, hallelujah, God's kingdom marches on.

- 2 A highway we are building for the ransomed of the Lord,
With the cross for its foundation and its arches of the Word:
It shall bridge the widest chasm with the promises of God,
Whose kingdom marches on. CHO.

- 3 Across the mighty continents and o'er the pathless sea,
We are stretching massive arches that shall last eternally;
And along the shining pathway press the footsteps of the free,
Whose souls are marching on. CHO.

- 4 From Orient and Occident these children of a King,
To claim a royal heritage, their souls from bondage bring:
And as they seek their Father's House, their happy voices ring,
Our souls are marching on. CHO.

 I know that He will not despise
 The offering that I bring.
- 2 I'll give my soul to Jesus

 Upon His loving breast.
 I'll give my mind to Jesus
 And seek in thoughtful hours
 His spirit's grace to consecrate
 Its early opening powers.
- 3 I'll give my strength to Jesus
 Of foot, of head, of will;
 Run where He sends and ever strive
 His pleasure to fulfil.
 I'll give my time to Jesus;
 Oh that each hour might be
 Filled up with holy work for Him,
 Who spent His life for me.

RALLYING SONG!

(Written expressly for the May Rally).

BY MRS. M. J. WILLCOX.

In faith and hope we gather here
With courage strong and true,
And willing hearts that waiting seek
Some work of love to do.
One Name our whole allegiance claims,
The Name of Christ our Lord;
Beneath His Cross we rally now,
To send His truth abroad.

Where India waves her feathery palms,
Beneath the Crescent's might,
See woman, bowed in sorrow, wait
The news of Life and Light.
The Love that gives us peace and rest,
Would fold with circling arm
All these who suffer and have sinned,
And keep them safe from harm.

Dear prisoned ones, we bring to-day
The story ever new;
Our watchword—"Jesus died for all;"
Our song—"He died for you."
One Name our whole allegiance claims,
The Name of Christ our King;
Beneath His Cross we rally now
And Hallelujah sing.

Tune Lochby—Missionary Hymnal, page 40.

Anon.

- (a) 1 We come to ask our Father now
 That eyes be made to see
 And hearts to burn and lips to say,
 What can I give to Thee?

CHO. We are a Foreign Mission Band
 With hearts right brave to do,
 We'll give to Jesus all we can
 And prove our hearts are true.

- 2 We know we're little and our store
 Of pennies is but small
 But then we want to bring e'en these,
 To God, who giveth all. CHO.

- 3 The older folks can give Thee more,
 Of work and money too,
 This night, O help them from their store,
 Their larger part to do. CHO.

- (b) 4 Dear Lord, may what has now been given,
 Find some sweet work to do,
 Show some poor soul the way to heaven,
 And help us find it too. CHO.

(a) To be sung at collection time.

(b) After collection.

- 1 Read o'er your marching orders,
 Sealed with your Leader's blood;
 "To earth's remotest borders"
 Proclaim the Lamb of God!
 Set life and death before them,
 The Jew, the Greek as well;
 There is one Father o'er them
 Who doeth all things well.
- 2 Read o'er your marching orders!
 Who knows so well as He
 The depths of sin's disorders,
 Its curse and misery?
 There is but one salvation
 From sin and death and hell,
 To every tribe and nation
 Let the sweet tidings swell.
- 3 Enough for you the mission,
 The gospel tale to tell,
 Under the great commission
 That saves from death and hell.
 Read o'er your marching orders,
 His flag must be unfurled
 In earth's remotest borders;
 Must float all round the world!

 Hum - bly bring our song our song to

The first system of the musical score consists of two staves. The treble staff begins with a C-clef and contains the melody for the first line of lyrics. The bass staff begins with an F-clef and contains the accompaniment. The lyrics are: "Hum - bly bring..... our songs to" on the first line, "chil - dren Hum - bly bring our song to Thee, we" on the second line, and "Hum - bly bring our song our song to" on the third line. The music is in a simple, hymn-like style with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature.

The second system of the musical score continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are: "Thee,..... Wilt Thou" on the first line, "bring our song to Thee; Wilt Thou bless, ac - cept, for - give and" on the second line, and "Thee,..... Wilt Thou" on the third line. The musical notation remains consistent with the first system, using a treble and bass staff with a key signature of one flat and common time.

- 1 The echo still is ringing
The grey old earth around,
The name of Jesus singing,
With fuller, sweeter sound.
From lands of date and palm tree,
The glad young voices sing
Hosanna in the highest,
Hosanna to our King!
- 2 We, too, would join the triumph,
We, too, would raise the song,
Would swell the mighty chorus
Of the adoring throng.
For since He died to save us,

- 1 Our country's voice is pleading,
Ye men of God, arise!
His providence is leading,
The land before you lies;
Day-gleams are o'er it brightening,
And promise clothes the soil;
Wide fields for harvest whitening,
Invite the reaper's toil.
- 2 Go, where the waves are breaking
On California's shore,
Christ's precious gospel taking,
More rich than golden ore;
On Alleghany's mountains,
Through all the western vale,
Beside Missouri's fountains,
Rehearse the wondrous tale.
- 3 The love of Christ unfolding,
Speed on from east to west,
Till all His cross beholding,
In Him are fully blest.

Haste, haste the glorious day,
When we, a ransomed nation,

 When with the ever-circling years
 Comes round the age of gold;
 When peace shall over all the earth
 Its ancient splendors fling.
 And the whole world give back the song,
 Which now the angels sing.

- 1 Blessed Savior, Thou didst suffer
 Little ones to come to Thee,
 Lo! we offer now our tribute,
 Let our praise accepted be;
 Mid the hallelujahs ringing,
 Mid the burst of angel song
 Stoop to hear our childish singing
 Listen to an infant throng.
- 2 For a cry of deepest sorrow,
 Comes across the waters blue;
 "Ye who know salvation's story,
 Haste to help and save us too.
 Shed, oh, shed the gospel glory
 O'er the darkness of our night,
 Till the gloomy shadows vanish
 In its full and blessed light."
- 3 For the poor benighted millions
 We can give and work and pray,
 And our gifts and prayers united,
 Sure will speed that happy day,
 When no more to idols bowing
 All shall own our Jesus, King,
 And ten thousand voices ringing
 Shall His praise victorious sing.

- 1 Go, ye messengers of God,
Like the beams of morning fly;
Take the wonder working rod,
Wave the banner cross on high:
Where the lofty minaret
Gleams along the morning skies
Wave it till the crescent set,
And the "Star of Jacob" rise.
- 2 Go to many a tropic isle
In the bosom of the deep,
Where the skies forever smile,
And th'oppressed forever weep.
O'er the negro's night of care
Pour the living light of heaven.
Chase away the fiend despair
Bid him hope to be forgiven.

Open on the palmy East,
Wide the bleeding cross display,
Spread the gospel's richest feast.
Bear the tidings round the ball,
Visit every soil and sea.
Preach the cross of Christ to all,
Christ, whose love is full and free.

The first system of the chorus consists of a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line is in G major (one flat) and 4/4 time. It begins with a half note G, followed by a quarter note A, a quarter note B, and a half note C. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note pattern in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.

For His blood can make you clean, He will hear your prayer

The second system of the chorus continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line concludes with a half note D, a quarter note E, and a half note F. The piano accompaniment provides harmonic support throughout the system.
